Camden

forum+ is a registered charity no. 1107855. A company limited by guarantee, registered in England, company reg no. 05132434.

Welcome to Camden & Islington LGBT History Month 2021

forum+ is very proud to present a fantastic programme of activities and events celebrating Camden & Islington LGBT History Month. The theme for 2021 is “Body, Mind, Spirit” and there are over 30 online activities and events for everyone to enjoy in this fully interactive programme. Celebrate and explore local LGBTQ heritage through digital trails, online seminars, book groups, film clubs, poetry events, history talks and more!

Join forum+ at an evening of music and entertainment to launch Camden & Islington LGBT History Month and Loudest Whispers 2021. Award winning hosts Christopher Hamilton and Shimi Goodman will be joined by very special guests Mzz Kimberley, Nicole Faraday and Professor of Whimsy Robert Garnham.

From the forum+ International Film Club to St Valentine’s Day Bingo, from the Incite Poetry LGBT History Month Special to the Lesbian Discussion Group, from Islington’s Pride live events to the Loudest Whispers Exhibition 2021, February is a month brimming with events that can all be accessed and enjoyed from the comfort of your home.

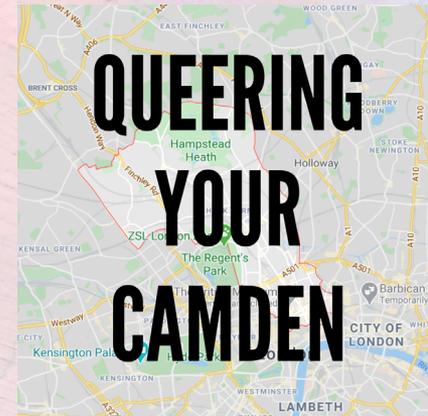

Despite the ongoing constraints and challenges caused by the coronavirus pandemic, these pages are packed with an exciting and extensive range of activities and events. We are extremely grateful to our funders Camden Council and Islington Council, to our volunteers and to the many individuals and organisations for their generous donation of time and effort. Thank you to all involved!

Queering Your Camden

Think you know everything about your local area? Think again! On this digital guided walking tour, you'll hear stories from LGBTQ+ people from across the world sharing their experiences in the cafes, doctors' offices, nightclubs, and tube stations around you. The tour covers most of Camden, and can be experienced from the comfort of your own sofa or in sections on a local walk.

This event is intended to take place individually and only within your immediate neighbourhood as part of your daily exercise complying with lockdown guidelines. For full information on how to comply with the current guidelines please visit <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/national-lockdown-stay-at-home> Tour requires the Echoes app, which can be downloaded via the link <https://explore.echoes.xyz/collections/zRAy5MFU9Pf16mbg> and www.queeringcamden.com/

Islington's Pride: Preview of Digital Heritage Trail

Throughout the Islington's Pride project, 150 points of interest have been found throughout the borough of Islington. This includes: current and former residents, venues such as LGBTQ+ bars, community organisations and locations of celebration and infamy. In order to bring this incredible amount of queer history to the people of the borough, Islington's Pride have worked with Error, a digital humanities organisation. In this preview, learn the entries, incorporated images and oral histories, as we demonstrate how our physical plaques across Islington will connect you to the rich history we celebrate today.

#ConnectingTheLetters LGBT History Month 2021

House of Pride presents

#ConnectingTheLetters, a campaign for LGBT+ History Month 2021, supported by Royal Mail, with profits going to the charity Stonewall Housing. 4 LGBT+ celebrities have been asked to write a love letter to the LGBT+ community: what it means to them, something or someone memorable and what they've been missing in lockdown. Those letters will be personalised and delivered to your door throughout February. You'll receive one letter a week, along with a prompt to write your own letter. Follow in the footsteps of Virginia Woolf, Oscar Wilde, and Audre Lorde, pick up your pen, pencil or quill, and start writing!

Explore the Islington's Pride LGBTQ+ Archive

A major part of the Islington's Pride project has been the creation of the Archive: collating and collecting items and ephemera that focus on the London Borough of Islington's LGBTQ+ heritage. Islington has been highly influential in the growth of the LGBTQ+ community, its organisations and rights through the 20th and into the 21st Century. Archivist Marlin Khondoker presents just some of the highlights in the archive, detailing the rich history and why it's so important to preserve our at-risk histories. While we wish you could join us in person, this really is the next best thing!

Islington's Pride: Collecting Oral Histories (in a Pandemic)

Oral Histories are incredible, personal testimonies that preserve intangible history while connecting us to our heritage in the most intimate ways.

Usually they are done face-to-face in an intimate setting. After just hiring the Islington's Pride oral historian we were forced to adapt.

Hear how we collected and are still collecting oral histories, the urgent importance of people's stories, and how we think future listeners will consider this time.
